

BASIC COURSE IN WAX MODEL MAKING

Every Monday new batches

INTRODUCTION

Wax is an excellent medium of expression and wax carving is an important process of construction of a jewellery design. Wax model making is used for making custom jewellery or for production. The objective of this course is to impart knowledge of this process, to the students so they can effectively express their ideas through the medium of wax.

In this course the student learns to make models of different jewellery like ring, pendant, earrings, etc. in hard carving wax and will also be given demonstration on the lost wax casting process and mould making.

The Students will learn different kinds of wax modelling techniques in hard and soft wax, using a variety of tools.

Duration:	30 sessions
Number of seats:	10
Eligibility:	S.S.C. Knowledge of drawing & Geometry
Fees:	Rs. 15, 000/ By Demand Draft
Certification	90% attendance & submission of all projects Set in the course with satisfactory performance is necessary.
Assessment	only internal grading / assessment to gauge The skill acquired by the candidates.
Target Group	Jewellers, Students, Craft Persons, Designers Art Lovers & interested Person.

COURSE CONTENTS

- Introduction to Tools, Material, Equipment, Safety / Maintenance
- Basic wax carving techniques for Hard wax
 - Measuring / Planning
 - Filing
 - Sawing
 - Drilling
 - Forming
 - Carving / Sculpturing
 - Assembling, etc.
- Projects in Hard wax to make rings, pendants, creating settings in wax for different shapes stones, etc.